

Dr. Regina Curry is a retired mitigation specialist/forensic social worker/DVO Consultant with over 17 years of experience. She honed her skills in the Mississippi Capital Defense Counsel and Capital Post Conviction Counsel Offices on trial, appeals, and Miller cases. Currently serving as a National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyer (NACDL) faculty member and contractual worker with the Office of State Public Defender – Special Defense Unit. She presented at national and state conferences which include Life in the Balance, National Association of Public Defenders, Mississippi Association of Public Defenders, National Association of Social Workers -MS, and Schools of Social Work (Mississippi and Alabama). As a field supervisor, she has enjoyed sharing her mitigation and professional skills with social work students from MS and AL school of social work programs. Several students she interned acquired mitigation specialist jobs in Mississippi, Tennessee, and Georgia public defender & capital defense offices, also Maryland and Florida federal public defender offices. Dr. Curry gained experience in business administrative and academic settings at three Louisiana State Hospitals, Central Texas College as an EEO/Affirmative Action Officer for worldwide campuses, Hinds Community College, Tougaloo College, and Jackson State University (JSU). Her education experiences include BS – Business @ Northwestern State University, LA; MS Administration @ Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, Michigan; MSW @ Jackson State University, Jackson, MS, and DSW @ Tulane University, NOLA.

“I Am My Brother’s Keeper”.